HOLBROOK HIGH SCHOOL

HOLBROOK, MASSACHUSETTS

DEDICATION

We the class of 1967 fondly dedicate this yearbook to our teacher, friend, and advisor, Miss Rosemary Driscoll.

During our years at Holbrook High School, she worked diligently and relentlessly to help us become mature adults ready to take our places in society. As head senior advisor, Miss Driscoll had worked hard. Although she has been, at times, disappointed, she has never complained or lost the conviction that our class would be the best ever. Her witty, optimistic nature has made her a friend to all. Her sparkling personality and warm-hearted friendliness have won for her a special place in our hearts.

No, Miss "D", you will not soon be forgotten nor will we forget room 204 where we could go when troubled and receive a kind word and an understanding smile.

Thank you, Miss Driscoll, for all you have done for us. May God bless you always.

The Echo is the yearbook of the student body of Holbrook High School. It is a pictorial record of the 1966-1967 scholastic year. Our thoughts, words, and deeds of that year are now history. Echo has captured some of our moods and madnnesses and has glimpsed our academic, athletic, and social activities.

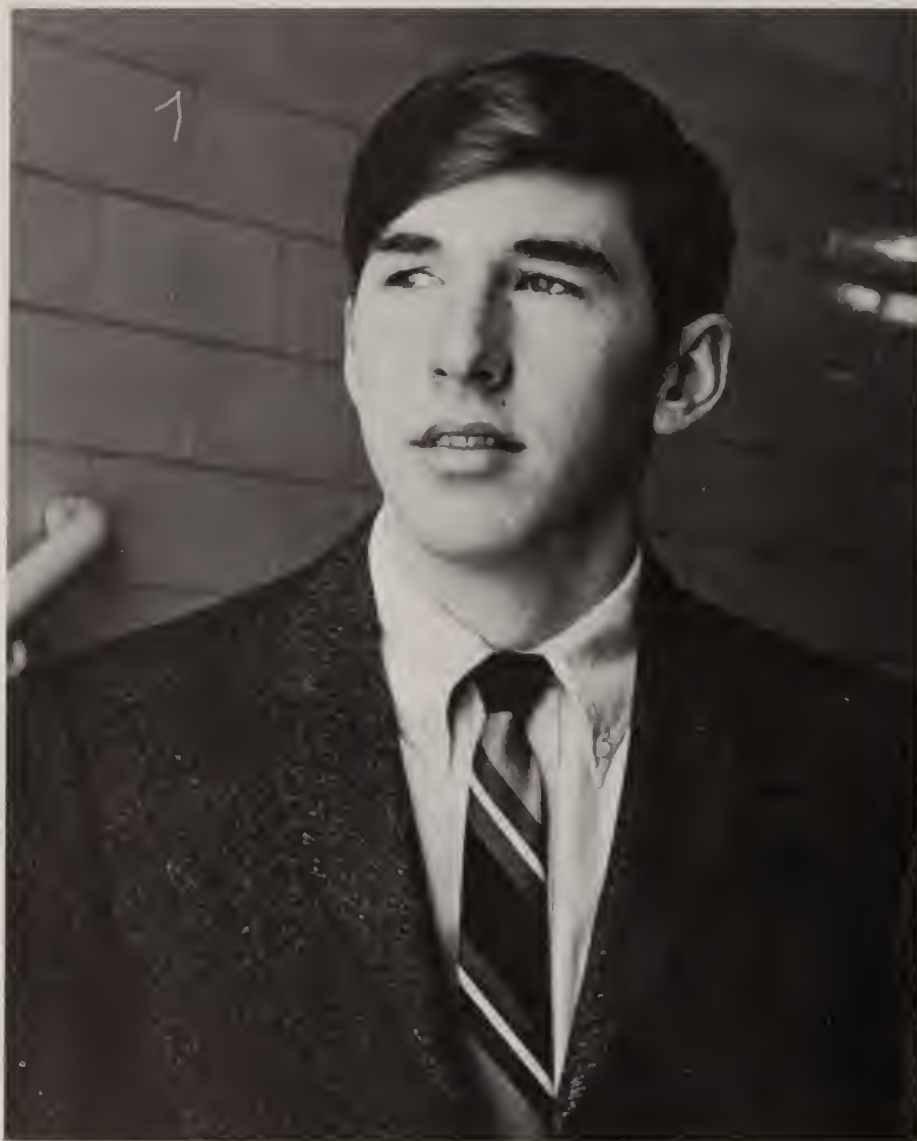

This book could not have been successfully published without the work of innumerable dedicated and persevering people. The Echo staff would especially like to thank our advisors: Mr. Robert Kindelan, Mr. Jerome Walsh, and Mr. Irwin Cohen. The value of their guidance and assistance is immeasurable. Also we would like to thank the anonymous persons who did the many little but vital things to assist us in this publication.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT

SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"Dare nothing, gain nothing," the motto which has piloted the class of 1967 through its four years at Holbrook High School, symbolizes the aggressiveness with which we shall attack the future. This motto points out the daring attitude with which we undertook so many of our social and academic activities. The final outcome of these undertakings has been success. By living this motto we have acquired a unique individuality which has helped us mature into well-rounded, well-prepared future citizens.

The time is now drawing near when our high school days will be over and we shall venture forth to take our parts in the cast of performers acting upon the stage of life. Before we move on, let us return once more to the rapidly fading past.

We have gained a great deal from our experiences at Holbrook High School. We have learned to recognize our own talents and our own restrictions. We have, through the contributions of many, had our characters molded. We have grown to be on the threshold of responsible adulthood.

I know I speak for the entire class when I extend to the administration, to the faculty, and to the friends of Holbrook High School who have been the backbone and inspiration of our success, our most sincere and heartfelt thanks. We can only hope that we make you proud.

We, the class of 1967, would like especially to thank Miss Driscoll and Mr. O'Reilly for the unselfishness with which they gave their time, their knowledge, their energy and their guidance to our undertakings. To them we owe much. We shall always appreciate their efforts and go forth remembering, "Dare nothing, gain nothing."

TO THE CLASS OF 1967:

Because you live in a land of freedom, your whole life should speak forth with thankfulness.

Live honestly and use wisely whatever talents you have been given. Happiness and success come to those who do the best they can, no matter how small or how large the task.

FACULTY

"A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops".

Adams

Our 1967 family album would be incomplete without a fitting tribute to the faculty for their perennial patience and careful counselling. They have stood by us through all our triumphs and all our defeats. Their duty was to educate us; to prepare us for the future. They accomplished this objective and much more. We are proud to know that no matter where we turn there is a teacher willing to help and guide us whether socially or academically.

Many of us are involved in extra-curricular activities. These activities could not succeed without the unstinting and unselfish devotion of the faculty. They have chaperoned our dances, attended our sports events, directed our plays, and even patronized our food sales.

We, the graduating class of Holbrook High School for 1967, are surely blessed with the finest faculty a school has ever had. They have stimulated us academically, culturally, and socially. They have done their full share.

ACTIVITIES

No school would be complete without activities, and here at HHS we have a fine cross-section that covers most of the interest to be found among high school students.

Some of the clubs were established to give a student a chance to enjoy himself doing what he likes. Others are for the improvement of the inquiring mind. Most clubs are open to those who wish to join; but some are open only to those who can earn their membership such as the National Honor Society, or those who are elected as The Student Council.

The clubs are under the leadership of teachers who devote their own time helping students to help themselves. In these activities a student has the opportunity to widen his interests, extend his horizons, and above all to learn.

No matter what a student has an interest in, if he has the willingness and the ability he can surely find a place for himself in at least one of the many organizations that are open to the students here at HHS.

Good Luck
Class of 1967
from
The Yunits Family

May the road rise to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warmly upon your face,
And the rain fall gently upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May the good Lord hold you in the palm of His hand.

—Miss Driscoll
